

I urge you to not enact rules that will give LPFM priority over FM translator service. Many people listen to K-LOVE on FM translators. KLOVE is very important. It provides help to many people who are discouraged and helps set many young people on a path toward a productive fulfilling life. It certainly brightens my day on my long drive to and from work each day. There are no other radio programs like it in my area. I would miss it very much.